Giet Engineering College conducted a three-day Soft Skills Training Programme for IV and III B. Tech students from 25-02-2019 to 27-02-2019. The trainer provided useful advice on how to enhance one's professional and communication abilities. He emphasized to the students that technical abilities alone would not help them get jobs and that professional skills were also important in order to progress professionally.

A three-day soft skills training program was held by Giet Engineering College for IV and III B. Tech students. Through this program, students acquired presentation skills for interviews. There were some significant pointers on creating a CV and typical interview inquiries. CV, resume, and biodata were distinguished by the instructor. It was well-received by the students, who also had inquiries.
